

Terms and Conditions:

When you book a session with the Healing Company you agree to the following terms and Conditions.

- Reiki and Reflexology (or ReikiReflex ) are hands-on holistic health treatments to encourage relaxation and healing
- Both are practiced while the client is fully clothed, or minus socks only, on a massage table
- If at any time you feel discomfort, you may ask for the session to be stopped.
- Sessions are most effective in relative quiet, but of course sometimes it is necessary to voice what you are feeling, in order to feel at ease
- Please note, I will not recommend you alter any treatment under your GP. These treatments are complementary to orthodox medicine.

You agree to the above statement with regard to services offered and give permission to Janie Whittemore of The Healing Company to perform such services as outlined above, and state that I have disclosed any information (health or otherwise) that may alter the effectiveness of services offered

- understand that treatments may or may not address any particular issue that I request help with
- understand that if I feel discomfort or have a problem during the session, it is my responsibility to voice my concerns
- understand that payment is required at time of services offered
- understand I must give 24 hours' notice for cancellations to avoid payment in full and at any time during a session I can request to stop a session, although this may not entitle me to a refund
- understand that sessions may occasionally need to be cancelled or changed by Janie Whittemore due to availability of treatment space and appointments
